

TAILORED SUITS and COATS

"How Little Can We Sell Them For?"

Figured on the basis that style, workmanship and quality being equal, THE PRICE, if lower, will get the business. We really have some exceptionally good values in Suits at $12.50, $15.00 and up, in which style, quality and workmanship have been maintained—but part of the profits sacrificed.

We do not think these can or will be readily duplicated.

For our sake—see them.

For your sake—buy them.

We have the proper length Coats, and proper style Skirts and the most desirable materials, such as Worsteds, Homespuns and Broadcloths in Suits to fit the Juniors, Misses and Ladies.

IMPORTANT

These Suits were not on sale a month ago.

They are new with all the advantages that NEW means NOW.

Don't neglect seeing them, others find them good, so will you.

A White steam automobile, driven through this city by Worcester, Mass., parties last evening, gained considerable attention. The car is one of the largest in the country and develops 70 horse power. In the party were J. P. Coffin, F. S. Miller, H. A. Gault, and the chauffeur, F. Langlois, all of Worcester.

H. J. Tawing, traveling representative for the D. K. Little granite company of Montpelier, has returned to his home in this city after a seventeen week's trip through the states of the middle West. He reports a fairly good business, although conditions are not picking up as rapidly as might be hoped for.

One of the most pronounced novelties that the drama has known in a number of years is "The House of a Thousand Candles," that is announced to appear at the opera house on Monday next. It is one of those plays so widely different from the usual type that it has aroused widespread attention and consequently it is proving one of the great drawing cards of the season. It is an excellent dramatization from Meredith Nicholson's novel of the same name.

Dr. G. L. T. Hayes of Graniteville wishes to correct an error in two statements published in The Times in connection with the recent visit of Sir Gordon Johnson, Bart., and Lady Johnson. It was erroneously stated that they were visiting Dr. and Mrs. Hayes. Now, Dr. Hayes wishes to state that he has not yet been fortunate enough to find a Mrs. Hayes and is still in the matrimonial market and, as far as he knows, is likely to be so for some time to come.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hollister Jackson, who recently returned from their wedding trip, were given a serenade last evening by a party of fifty friends. The party, headed by the band, marched to the home of the couple on South Main street, where a selection was played by the band and three cheers were given by the company, following which Mr. and Mrs. Jackson appeared on the piazza and were given a hearty welcome by their friends. The procession then marched to Miles hall, where the groom was escorted. Ned J. Roberts, as chairman of the occasion, introduced City Clerk James Mackay, who in an apt speech presented Mr. Jackson for himself and wife a very handsome cut glass water set. After Mr. Jackson had responded, thanking his friends for their kindness, a buffet lunch was served.
